

Goodnight, Good Fight

The Evan Anthem

it feels lonely out tonight look at the window can you see a thing?
an hour back since two weeks i'ts after five and i can't see outside what will the next bring a turn to the left why'd you say a word? one day i'll find this town out one day 'ill find you out of this town
and everything that goes on is more distant than before taken away never to be heard again like a missing shadow in the sun here comes the overcast
