6 Of 1 Thing

Craig David

6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another
What you doin' to me?
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another
Baby tell me why
Why do you always front
Lately over nothin'
Baby actin' nonchalant tell me
Why you been trippin' out
Where's the love gone baby?
All I know there's no more
Kissin', huggin', makin' lovin'
Romantic weekends in London
Used to always say girlfriend
I'm the only one that makes you happy
Tell me girl what to changed since then
Why we don't communicate no more
Leavin' me wide open
And it's so clear to see that
This ain't workin' that's for certain
Baby please just tell me somethin'
Why you actin' crazy? Yeah
One minute crazy next thing everything crisp
That's why I don't understand why you're actin' like this
Baby why you actin' crazy?
Don't confuse me when you tell me baby
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another
What you doin' to me?
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another
Baby tell me why
Why you always cryin'
Lately over nothin' baby

When all I'm doin' is tryin', trust me
Just wanna work this out
So hard to be strong baby
When it seems you're always
Boyfriend snubbin', girlfriends clubbin'
Baby please just tell me somethin'
Why you actin' crazy? Yeah
One minute crazy next thing everything crisp
That's why I don't understand why your actin' like this
Baby why you actin' crazy?
Don't confuse me when you tell me baby
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another
What you doin' to me?
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another
Baby tell me why
This one dedicated to my peeps in the same shit as this
This one, I don't know, I ain't been here before
But I know I don't want to let you go
She's like this, one minute wanting to kiss
Next minute we both be fighting like this
It was never like that
You were just my girl and your boy had your back
But you're one in a million, just came off the rails though
Flipped off the track tryin' to put you back on though
Just like a yo yo, how relationships go
We kickin' out the door but you even before thought so
Unpredictable, hard to follow
Specially when I don't know what the fuck is wrong
That why girl I'm so confused when your sittin' there
Sayin' baby, baby
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another
What you doin' to me?
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another
Baby tell me why
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another

What you doin' to me?
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
6 of 1 thing, half a dozen of another
Tell me one thing then you go and do another
Baby tell me why
Oh baby, what you doin' to me?
