

Ball and Chain

Twelve Gauge Valentine

the ball and chain.. it's all we've got.. it's tearing me down.. it's holding me back..I'd hope that real killers put it all over the line let's take things a little further, yeah! we're driving blindclear out the courtyard, call the guards back out clear out the courtyard, we'll bring the king to his kneesI know this is what you've wanted I know this is what you've been dying forprepare yourself,(killer) cause you're chasing ghost the worst is yet,(killer) and the damage is donedon't change your tune for the radio we're driving through cause it's all we knowwhat could we get what could you give we were only stalling.. yeah we were only stallingI.. still can't see.. what.. we.. have done wrong here..sit alone and creep it was just a dream and it's been to long this time we disappearwe're scared to death but, we can't back down let's take the plunge it don't look so deepI'd hope that real killers put it all over the line let's take things a little further, yeah! we're driving blindclear out the courtyard, I'll call the guards back out clear out the courtyard, let's bring the king to his kneesI know this is what you've wanted
