

Fear to Feel

Alvarez Kings

I've been thinking of you
Hoping you're thinking of me
But I'm alone in my thoughts and submerged in the dark
When you cut off my call
Can't help fight the demons in my head
Sleep this off, tomorrow start again We were almost there
But my feet won't touch the ground
What once burned is no longer bound
We were almost there
But your feet won't touch the ground
Am I a ghost to these strangers now? Is anybody out there
I'm drowning and the tide won't pull me in
I'm slowly sinking deeper
But I won't gasp for one more breath
Constance burn in embers once aflame
Smoldered fired will find their heat again We were almost there
But my feet won't touch the ground
What once burned is no longer bound
We were almost there
But your feet won't touch the ground
Am I a ghost to these strangers now? Am I a stranger?
Am I a stranger?
Am I a stranger?
Am I a stranger? We were almost there
But my feet won't touch the ground
What once burned is no longer bound
We were almost there
But your feet won't touch the ground
What once burned is no longer bound
I don't want these tears!
The fear to feel
Can we make this real?
The fear to feel
I don't want these tears!
The fear to feel
Hurt me make me heal
The fear to feel
