

Gonna Breakthrough

Mary J Blige

If you've been stressin' you've been hurtin'
It's gonna be alright
I know times get so hard that you can cry
But not tonight
I know just what you came for
Get up up on the dance floor
Or wherever you are
While the DJ's breakin' it down
Ain't no telling what we're gon' do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
And take you where it feels so good
Ain't no telling what we're gon' do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
And take you where it feels so good
All I wanna do is get in touch with you
To be real how you feel
Everybody goes through things sometimes
So let your mind just be free
Anything you wanna be, be
Let this music get to you
Ain't no telling what we're gon' do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
And take you where it feels so good
Ain't no telling what we're gon' do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
And take you where it feels so good
We gonna tear it up all night, listen till the morning light
Something that's gonna sooth your mind
Baby let your body free, anything you wanna be Just let go and you will see
Check it out
It's time to break through MJ gonna take you there
Get your hands in the air and get you a three step
Lil' somethin' for the clubs and it feels so hood
Got the whole world sayin' how she still so good
It's a gift God given I'm a ribbon in the sky
So fly I'ma ride like the queen I am
Pay homage mike check one, two one, two
Pop bottles get it cronk that's what we came to do

Get your back off the wall 'cause united we stand
Together we raw, everybody up on the floor
Like de de ne de de ne de de ne
Get your ass on the floor, let's go
Ain't no telling what we're gon' do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
And take you where it feels so good
Ain't no telling what we're gon' do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
And take you where it feels so good
Ain't no telling what we're gon' do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
And take you where it feels so good
Ain't no telling what we're gon' do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
And take you where it feels so good
Gonna breakthrough
Gonna breakthrough
Gonna breakthrough
