Envy

Shihad

Falling, was it right?
Could you tell me, is it right?
To envy
Your final escape

Well I spent all year packing on the make-up
Spent all year waiting for your call
And when it didn't come
I was nailed, I was nailed
And when it didn't come
It left me standing
Feet nailed to the floor

How were we So out of sight How could you think you were below envy Was it right?
