

Why You Wanna Hurt My Heart?

Jimmy Buffett

Why you wanna hurt my heart?
Why you wanna hurt my heart
When you know that I love you?
Everybody 'round us can see
Just how it ought to be
Everybody but you Played your little game of deception
Soon there's gonna be a connection
When you're blue, oh, when you're blue
I know it's just a cryin' shame
Nobody left to blame, nobody but you If I could turn back
If I could turn back the hands of time
I'd do you a favor
Straighten out confusion in your mind
In your mind Gonna see the voodoo lady
'Fore this thing drives me crazy
Learn what to do, do about you
Mix me up one of her potions
Forget about my emotions
Forget about you Why you wanna hurt my heart?
Why you wanna hurt my heart
When you know that I love you?
Everybody 'round us can see
Just how it ought to be
Everybody but you Why you wanna hurt my heart?
Why you wanna hurt my heart?
Why you wanna hurt my heart?
Why you wanna hurt my heart?
Why you wanna hurt my heart?
