

All Our Endless Love (feat. Matt Berninger)

The Bird and the Bee

[Verse 1: Inara]

At first I was scared

The way these feelings started coming on

I couldn't breathe without you there

I couldn't see without you in my arms

I opened up my eyes to find your eyes already open

I see a piece of me inside

As if it's been there all the time[Hook: Inara George]

I am just blood, I am just blood

I am just a heart that's beating up every second of your touch

I am just stars, I am just sky

I am falling to the rhythm of all your endless love[Verse 2: Matt Berninger]

It keeps me up at night

Was there a time I lived without you?

Just living off your air

Every breath is all about you

I'm spinning all the worlds around

To try and rearrange them

I work so hard to say goodnight

But there's too much of you left behind[Hook: Inara George & Matt Berninger]

I am just blood, I am just blood

(You are just running through my veins)

I am just a heart (Keeping you alive) that's beating up (Pulsing everywhere) every (Inside of me) second of your touch

I am just stars, I am just sky

(You are everything I see)

I am falling (Drifted) to the rhythm (I'm not afraid, just let me fall) of all your endless love[Bridge: Inara

George & Matt Berninger]

Is this really ending?

Is this really ending?

All our endless love[Hook]

I am just blood, I am just blood

(You are just running through my veins)

I am just a heart (Keeping you alive) that's beating up (Crushing everywhere) every (Inside of me) second of your touch

I am just stars, I am just sky

(You are everything I see)

I am falling (Drifted) to the rhythm (I'm not afraid, just let me fall) of all your endless love
