

Butcher

Metric

You're so handsome
In this light if only you'd reject me tonight darling there's no only way When you come please don't stay we're so boring we're so white we've had too much, so long, besides what of freedom can I say?
When I smoke DuMaurier light learn to bend learn to swerve learn to bend learn to butcher I could look wholesome in this light brown and homely he's lovely, besides where can we go wrong we stray for nothing now so just once more fall for the stone neglect the flesh to pursue the bone darling, beauty, daily bread say learn to bend learn to swerve learn to bend learn to butcher (do it to make amends and do it over again)
Do it over
