

Face of a Fighter (Re-Recorded)

Willie Nelson

These lines in my face caused from worry
Grow deeper as you walk out of sight
Mine is the face of a fighter
But my heart has just lost the fight
Round one, you told me you loved me
An' I felt my heart fallin' there an' then
The last round you walked tall an' left me
An' I guess my heart's losin' again
Mine is the face of a fighter
I fought for your love with all my might
Mine is the face of fighter
But my heart has just lost the fight
Yes, mine is the face of a fighter
I fought for your love with all my might
Mine is the face of fighter
But my heart has just lost the fight
