Defeater

I was a good man once, I was a good man once
But years of unanswered prayers have left me faithless
I was a good man once but now hopeless and abandoned
I was a good man once, I was a good man once
But years of serving in hell have left me faithless
I was a good man once but now hopeless and abandoned
Now hopeless and abandoned

Hopeless and abandoned I was a good man once, I was a good man once

But years of unanswered prayers have left me faithless
I was a good man once but now hopeless and abandoned
I was a good man once, I was a good man once
But years of serving in hell have left me faithless

I was a good man once but now hopeless and abandoned

I let the pain in my head to the veins in my arms to rush

I feel the burn in my blood in my lungs in my chest collapse

I feel the ache in my guts as the memories and hurt flood back

When all I want to feel, when all I want to feel is nothing I let the pain in my head to the veins in my arms to rush

I feel the burn in my blood in my lungs in my chest collapse

I feel the ache in my guts as the memories and hurt flood back

When all I want to feel, when all I want to feel I was a good man once, I was a good man once

But years of unanswered prayers have left me faithless

I was a good man once but now hopeless and abandoned

I was a good man once, I was a good man once

But years of serving in hell have left me faithless

I was a good man once but now hopeless and abandoned

Now hopeless and abandoned. hopeless and abandoned

Forgive me, my father, for I am a sinner

Unanswered, abandoned, unanswered, abandoned

Forgive me, my father, for I am a sinner

Unanswered, abandoned, unanswered I was a good man once...
