Strangely Beautiful (7" Mix)

Television Personalities

Hey boy cool down, it's not the end of the world
Just buy a ticket and take a train, you'll find yourself tomorrowHey girl, dry those tears, you'll find another lover
Someone who'll care, and cherish you, like no otherAnd everything you want to be is everything that you can be
And everything you want to see, is waiting to be seenSo hey boy chill out, it's not the end of the worldTake a look outside, you never know what you might find
Take a look outside, the world looks strangely beautiful todaySo cool down, it's not the end of the world
And the world looks strangely beautiful today
