

East Coast Girl

Cayucas

Aahhh...

Hey! Hey!

O o-oh o-oh

Hey! Hey!

O o-oh o-oh-oh

Hey! Hey!

O o-oh o-oh

Hey! Hey!

O o-oh o-oh

Oh oh oh oh oh

Ohhhh...Walked from the subway down to the train

Brought your umbrellas so just in case it rains

Goodbye Chicago, I'll see you soon

Gone from November, I won't be back 'til June

You kept your secrets girl and I told you lies

No hiding places left for me to hide

We rode our bikes down to old McKinley Park

... shows in the barAahhh...

Said you moved to town about a week ago

Job of fourteen hours from the go

Studied english literature ... foreign politics

So for now, you were going back and forthLate out of Oakwood Montgomery

There's someone singing about ...

Built in the winter of 1843

Pictures of ...I just want to take a taxi out of the city before you fall asleep

Ignore the bums and ... asking for money

I've got to go, I've got to go

Aahhh...

Said you moved to town about a week ago

Job of fourteen hours from the go

Studied english literature ... foreign politics

So for now, you were going back and forthThe story of an East Coast girl

Warm in her winter clothes waiting for the sun to finally go down

Oh she's wondering what happened to that California sunshine she used to know

She used to knowHey! Hey!

O o-oh o-oh

Hey! Hey!

O o-oh o-oh-oh

Hey! Hey!

O o-oh o-oh

Hey! Hey!

O o-oh o-oh
