My Revenge On Seattle

No-Man

maybe there's more to life
than just writing songs.
maybe not.
maybe there's more to life
than just righting wrongs maybe not.I grow so cold, you reach for gold
I fail to hold your attention.[chorus:]
their pretty boy ways
always take you away,
take you away.
my revenge on seattle -
I retreat from the battle.
won't you stay?maybe there's more to life
than just biting tongues.
maybe not.
out of the sky
and left to die -
believing the lie of protection.[chorus x2]maybe there's more to life
than just writing songs.
maybe not.
