

Friends

Amii Stewart

Come on my friend and leave your caution to the wind

I know we used to keep that feeling out of sight

It's getting stronger, I feel it burning in my mind

Slowly teasing me it's growing deep inside

Come on and lay your tender lips down on my skin

Show me how sweet and easy it can be

And let us stick together and make it happen

I won't think it over again

Take you to the top

Tell me every hidden thought

Come on let me love you again

Do the best I can

Make me tremble with your breath

Come on my friend and leave your caution way behind

I wanna love your body till the morning light

Ooh watch me my friend

I feel you reachin' in my mind

Though I know we'll be in love just for one night

I keep on trying to change my point of view again

But everything it seems to be the same

I want you where you are now

Don't wanna lose you

I won't think it over again

Take you to the top

Tell me every hidden thought

Come on let me love you again

Do the best I can

Make me tremble with your breath

Lay your tender lips down on my skin

Show me how sweet and easy it can be

And let us stick together and make it happen

Oh take me to the

Take me to the top

You know I love you baby now and forever
Ooh yeah
