Judgement Day

Grim Skunk

People always ask me for advice
To help them choose wrong from right
They just want me to be nice
I wish they'd get a life
Make up their minds which path to take
It's salvation that's at stake
Don't count on me to seal your fate
Before it gets too lateWalk straight as you move to the rhythm
All alone in the valley of decision
Won't find no easy way
It's judgement day
And your whole fucked up generation
Is wiggin out on high speed navigation
Virtually devoid of sensation
It's judgement dayI am the judge of Good and Evil
You are accused of having sinned
Bring in the evidence, let the trial begin
It's judgement day
You're going to pay for all the crimes
All the bad times you made people go through You're a wicked man that's been condemmed to hellIt's your judgement day you're going to pay
It's your judgement day judgement dayPromises are promises it's time that you realize
If you break your promises they have all turned into lies
No one puts their faith in you
Do you know the reasons why
Everybody knows you
They see right through your cheap disguiseSet your sights on instant salvation
A click away from every temptation
Log in eternal damnation
It's judgement day

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/