Wolves and Doors

Finger Eleven

Step right on out
The zone of comfort
One step outside your head
Take all these words
Take all this time
You gotta spend it somewhere
Keep your delusion wealthy
YeahKeep your soul for another day
'Cause the game's the game
And the wolves at the door remain
There
Yeah the wolves at the door remain
There
Yeah the wolves at the door remain
There
Yeah the wolves at the door remain
Until I play the game againGo shape that world
Go move that mountain
Make all the difference
Step up above the rest
Give every action all your energy
And don't let up until they see
What you think they think is bestYeah, save your soul for another day
'Cause the game's the game
And the wolves at the door remain
There
Yeah the wolves at the door remain
There
Yeah the wolves at the door remain
There
Yeah the wolves at the door remain
Until I play the game again
Yeah the wolves at the door remainAnd the wolves at the door remain
There
Yeah the wolves at the door remain
There
Yeah the wolves at the door remain
There

Yeah the wolves at the door remain
Until I play the game again
Yeah the wolves at the door remainGive in, breathe in
They won't go away
Give in, breathe in
They won't go away
Give in, breathe in
The wolves at the door remain
