Cosmic Angel

Grizfolk

She's my guide and I'm her love
Celestial body from above
I throw a diamond in her well
Forget all that I know

Cause I just wanna live inside your eyes
In between a million different stars
Underneath the feelin' of it all
Outside the garden of your thoughts

I've fallen this far
Still confused as to what you are
If heaven is your heart
This hell I've been living in is so dark

So dark

She's my guide and I'm her love
Celestial body from above
I throw a diamond in her well
Forget all that I know

Cause I just wanna live inside your eyes
In between a million different stars
Underneath the feelin' of it all
Outside the garden of your thoughts

I've fallen this far
Still confused as to what you are
If heaven is your heart
This hell I've been living in is so dark

So dark
