

Skipping Stones

Claire De Lune

Stop the world from spinning around
Feels like the sky is falling down
Can't breathe I can't breathe out
I'm afraid that I might drown
Can't stay afloat I'm just

Skipping stones
An echo on the water
I'm letting go
Surrender to the bottle
Another rising tide
Another storm to fight
Come and take me
I'm just a skipping stone

Is this just a wicked game?
Will it wash with the next rain?
Can't give in I can't give up
I'm trying hard it's not enough
Throw myself to the unknown

Like a skipping stone
An echo on the water
I'm letting go
Surrender to the bottle
Another rising tide
Another storm to fight
Come and take me
I'm just a skipping stone

Forever is a long time to be walking on a fine line
Chasing out the sunlight
Burning out fake smile

Skipping stone
An echo on the water
Letting go
Surrender to the bottle

Skipping stone

An echo on the water
I'm letting go
Surrender to the bottle
Another rising tide
Another storm to fight
Come and take me
I'm just a skipping stone

Another rising tide
Another storm to fight
Come and take me
I'm just a skipping stone

Another rising tide
Another storm to fight
Come and take me
I'm just a skipping stone
