

Speak Now, I'm Listening

Memphis May Fire

Persevere, persevere.
It's time to test the limits of your heart.
Make it clear, this is not a test of the sustem they want you to believe.

Understanding the paths that we take,
relay's signals from our nerves to our brain.
Don't get lost in teh upside down ways.
This world has a heavy hold on your heart.

You've known from day one that things aren't always cut just to fit you.
Uncertain of what's at stake,
this question is killing you.

So many think they know it all.
All they know is that it's gonna end.
Gotta live while you can,
gotta live while you can.

You'll find it hard,
harder now just to believe.
Give it some time, give it some time.
Give it face need time.

Crashing through the open doors,
fall flat on our faces again.
This is the life that you choose,
you've got the time, make your amends.

Crashing through the open doors,
fall flat on our faces again.
This is the life that you chose,
you've got the time, make your amends.

I know somtimes it's so hard.
Afraid to show your wakness,
but we're all so weak inside.
So don't listen, make up your own mind.

Listen with your ear to the sky,

and keep your feet moving.

PERSEVERE, PERSEVERE.

You have the power to make this life your own.

It's time to test the limits of your heart.

Make it clear, make it clear.

This is not a test of the system.

In a world, a world that is broken,
a world that is broken.

I'm afraid of a world that is breaking,
a world that is breaking down.

In a world that is broken and dead,
I am afraid that there's nothing left.
In a world that is broken and dead,
I am afraid that there's nothing left.

In a world that is broken and dead,
I am afraid that there's nothing left.
Show them how strong you are.
You've come this far, don't fall.
