Not Like the Other Girls

The Rasmus

No more blame
I am destined to keep you sane
Gotta rescue the flame
Gotta rescue the flame in your heart

No more blood
I will be there for you my love
I will stand by your side
The world has forsaken my girl

Should've seen it would be this way
Should've known from the start what she's up to
When you've loved and you've lost someone
You know what it feels like to lose

She's fading away
Away from this world
Drifting like a feather
She's not like the other girls
She lives in the clouds
And talks to the birds
Hopeless little one
She's not like the other girls, I know

No more shame
She has felt too much pain in her life
In her mind she's repeating the words
All the love you put out will return to you

Should've seen it would be this way
Should've known from the start what she's up to
When you've loved and you've lost someone close to you
You know what it feels like to lose

She's fading away
Away from this world
Drifting like a feather
She's not like the other girls
She lives in the clouds
And talks to the birds

Hopeless little one
She's not like the other girls, I know [Repeat x2]
