Absent minded friends (live)

Moloko

Well it's a silly thing, that I've been wondering

Shall we drink a toast to, absent minded friends
To all who turned the corner and, to those who went round the bend
Everybody raise your glasses, drink and drown
Melancholy for the masses, love come down

Well it's a silly thing, that I've been wondering

Maybe you will never, bridge the gulf
Maybe you were just to sensitive, are you numb enough
Can we ever feel this, impending void
Have we become what we intended, to avoid

Ref
Have you ever smiled for too long, till your aching
Have you ever laughed till you cried, till your heart is breaking
Have you ever smiled for too long, till you

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/