Competition

Little Mix

Yeah, you're such a gentleman
You always open doors for me
But you see us kind of different
It's like, you always have to be
The first one to open his mouth
The last one to throw in the towel
It's time to show your self-out
Boy you're tryingJust a little bit too hard
I thought I told you when we met
That all I get for who you are
But I treat you like an argument
I don't need to speak in my mind
I'm too grown, I'm taking my time
I'm sick of hearing you rhyme
Listen, babyYou don't have to come first
Second is okay 'cause you ain't never beated meI say it once
You say it twice
You know I like a little competition from time to time
You think I'm wrong when I know I'm right
You lose this ain't no kind of competition
I like a man with ambition
For when you gonna know it's time to let go
'Cause I think I'm about to lose my mindTell me does this scare you
That I'm living my dream?
Now I don't mean to hurt you
But you make me wanna scream
You smile while grinding your teeth
You clap and stomping your feet
You act about 17
I'm so tiredYou don't have to come first
Second is okay 'cause you ain't never beated meI say it once
You say it twice
You know I like a little competition from time to time
You think I'm wrong when I know I'm right
You lose this ain't no kind of competition
I like a man with ambition
For when you gonna know it's time to let go
'Cause I think I'm about to lose my mindI can do it better
You know I can do it betterWhat are you trying to prove?

What is it with you?
Always thinkingI can do it better
You know I can do it betterBaby, I can't stand
Always argument
Why you wanna fight?
Why you always fight?You ain't always right
I can do it better every day and every night
I can do it better every day and every nightI say it once
You say it twice
You know I like a little competition from time to time
You think I'm wrong when I know I'm right
You lose this ain't no kind of competition
I like a man with ambition
For when you gonna know it's time to let go
'Cause I think I'm about to lose my mind
