

She Don't Know

Vince Gill

Only a memory this morning
My baby up and walked away
In my heart the tears keep pouring
She left with so much more to say[Chorus]
She don't know whose heart she's breaking
She don't know my dream lies still
She don't know how much she's taking
She don't know and never will I can't sleep, I've gotta find her
I've got to make her understand
Although another love may bind her
No one can love her like I can[Chorus: x2]
