

Disowned Inc. (metal remix)

Serj Tankian

I can feel you far away, your hesitation matching mine.
Sadness left me far away yea,
Your contemplation turn to wine
An old man stares at me
Mutual bizarre revere
Laugh at thy neighbor
Pretend you are sane, just the same
You survived in vain
Laugh at thy neighbor
Pretend you are sane just the same,
You survived in vainTime is the father of existence
Rhyme the brother of resistance
Broken down by men in their crazy mind
? is the mother of unknown distance
Will the sister of persistence
Stripping under the elusive sky.A motion of the devotion,
Euphoric scriptures of the ocean
Laugh at thy neighbor
Pretend you are sane just the same
You survived in vainTime is the father of existence
Rhyme the brother of resistance
Broken down by men in their crazy minds
? is the mother of unknown distance
Will the sister of persistence
Stripping under the elusive sky.I felt so alone
Till you came into my life
And stopped the pain
I felt so alone then you came into my life
And poured the rain
I feel so alone, dressed in the dark silk clothing of your own disdain
I feel so disowned since your children took up arms in your own name.God sings different in every language.
God sings different in every language.Impulsed delusion, compulsive solution
God speak different in every language.
Impulsed delusion, compulsive solution
God speaks different in every language.
