

Back Home

Charles Esten

Sometimes it feels like I'm so far away,
Like everything I love has lost its place.
When life gets the best of me,
I just close my eyes and see,

Fireflies dancing in the yard,
Under a blanket of stars,
The sound of that rusty string guitar,
Playin' songs we know.
And all that I have to do,
Is think one little thought of you,
And I'm back home
I'm right back home.

Work so long and hard to chase a dream,
And wind up some place you don't wanna be,
It's such a lonely road,
Especially when you know,

There's fireflies dancing in the yard,
Under a blanket of stars,
The sound of that rusty string guitar,
Playin' songs we know.
And all that I have to do,
Is think one little thought of you,
And I'm back home
I'm right back home.

I'm back home,
I'm right back home.
