

I'll Pray for You

Westland

Verse 1:

A life times past by me in an odd shapely week,
and there's nothing left to drink.
Stumble around, say, "I'm fine," couldn't be a bigger lie,
and there's nothing left to drink.Pre-Chorus:

I'll pray for you, cause I know you love to. (x2)Chorus:

Severed myself, I'm trying not to show my better half,
Well she had to go.Verse 2:

Waking up with new friends and it all feels pretend.
When will I love again?

I replay all those words that you said I deserve,
That led us to the end.Pre-Chorus:

I'll pray for you, cause I know you love to. (x2)Chorus:

Severed myself, I'm trying not to show my better half,
Well she had to go...(x2)Bridge:

I'll continue my self-destructive life, as long as I need.

'Cause it's you and I even with your knife carving me.

'Cause it's you and I even with your knife carving me.Chorus:

Severed myself, I'm trying not to show my better half,
Well she had to go...(x2)
