

Nothing Else Matters

Agnes

It seems frail
but its real
solid strong of the world we build you just gotta believe
outside its cold
a dangerous road
never dare cross it alone this envy you must seal And you should know when Im with you
and youre my own
my reason to live
and I forget where I belong if we just believe Let it go, I'll let it go and I hope that you can understand when theres you and I nothing else matters Realize, their vain disguise they throw powder in your eyes this mirage deceives
you know the truth
our home well choose
this sanctuary is our booth pour une mort douce et tranquille
