Mindphaser (Fragmented Edit)

Front Line Assembly

"Jesus...had days like this"
"Cyborgs - cybernetic organisms...""Machines with living human tissue and programmed to destroy"
The silence is deafening
Regression hangs in the air
A motionless world sits waiting
For new codesA war of technology
Threatens to ignite
Digital murder
The language of machinesMesmerised by a decade of faith
Flowers and remorse
A fading vision lost in time
Tragedy on courseSynthetic conspiracy
Masters of the human race
The mind now knows
New levels of fearImplanted brain cells
Control is gone
We seem to believe
Truth is regressionThe tension shows
The tension shows"A quantum leap forward"
"Full OCP binary cyborg technology"
"State of the art destructive capabilities"
"Commanded by a unique combination of software and organic systems"
"Jesus...had days like this"The target we seek Slowly comes into sight
The countdown begins
For launch into hellThe tension begins"State of the art destructive capabilities"The kill is swift
It makes no sound
Aggression take its toll
Rhythm of violence
Cuts through the air
There's no more control
The sky turns brighter, a evil red
Missiles fly through the air
Shattered dreams
Shattered hopes
There's bodies everywhere"Bwahahaha"
"State of the art destructive capabilities"
