Strong Enough

J Moss

[VERSE 1:]
Lookin at the walls Feelin like theyre closing in on me
Scared I might fall Krazy like trippin over my own feet
What would I do if the Lord took His arms from around me
Id succumb to the grips of the unknownBut I know Im not supposed to feel this way (God)
I know that Im supposed to trust You everyday (God)
But it gets so hard to keep it all movin (God)
Sometimes I feel like Im loosin my grip on God[HOOK:]
Im tired of living like my faith aint strong enough
Im tired of living like my faith aint strong enough
Im tired of living like Im scared of whats coming around the corner
Tired of living weak when I know that Im stronger
Im tired of living like my faith aint strong enough[VERSE 2:]
I wanna spread my wings but I worry too much about what people think
Oh God will I flourish or will I sink
What I believe doesnt match up with whats bothering me
Its written in Your Word You got my needsBut I know Im not supposed to feel this way (God)
I know that Im supposed to trust You everyday (God)
But it gets so hard to keep it all movin (God)
Sometimes I feel like Im loosin my grip on God
