Dying Outside

Brainstorm

[- Social isolation -]i always have fantastic plans no matter what to do i hide my fears and leave you here as rain falls down on you do you believe and don't you know the way it's always been i realize that you don't care about the hate i've ever seenso hard to bear with you not there but really no one seems to caresomething inside is dying outside flicker on a screen, unsure of what it means something inside is dying outside make it to the end and never try to befriendi wake up in a desert land, i hold my head down deep with all my inner sufferings i'll never fall asleep this heart of mine, tortured in dreams, too much to stay awake the scars of fate, i lost my faith its more than i can takeyou struggle just to stay alive but only the strongest will survive as really no one seems to care your fate will meet you everywhere
