Don't Care About Me

Lower Class Brats

You think you had the right,
the way you spoke to me last night.
Well, that tone in your voice and that look in your eye.
You won't apologize when youre wrong.
You keep on singin' the same old song.
You're like a broken record, I wish you'd die.You shouldn't care about me,
'cause I don't care about you.
No matter what I say, no matter what I do.Well, I don't get how you see me,
all your drugs are incomplete.
There's so much more that you'll never know.
You're exempt cause I don't need.
My expectations never exceed,
'cause I have nothin' to hide and nothin' to show.You shouldn't care about me,
'cause I don't care about you.
No matter what I say, no matter what I do.Lets go!You shouldn't care about me,
'cause I don't care about you.
No matter what I say, no matter what I do.You're nothing if not a cunt.
Can't imagine what you want.
I think this has all gone a bit too far.
This conversation's over, thats it.
I don't need your friend shit.
Shut the fuck up, you're dunk and just outta the bar.You shouldn't care about me,
'cause I don't care about you.
No matter what I say, no matter what I do.
No matter what I say, no matter what I do.
No matter what I say, no matter what I do.
