

Ready Now

Rod Stewart

I gave trust like an innocent kid
I believed everything you said
A parasite that fed on doubt
Yeah it's you that I'm talking about You rode heavy on my fame
Then you scandalized my name
You robbed me blind with a [incomprehensible]
You lacerated your closest friend I don't know how you sleep
At night with your conscience
Do they still kiss your feet
And is life as sweet in my absence? I'm ready now
Ready now for what I gotta give
I'm ready now
Ready now for how I want to live I don't want no sweet revenge
It'll come and get you in the end
Laugh now while the truth's unknown
'Cause pretty soon it'll be my turn One of these days and it won't be long
I will find you
Lock up your gates
You'll need all of your snakes to defend you I'm ready now
Ready now for what I gotta give
I'm ready now
Ready now for how I want to live I'm bitter now but wait and see
You ain't heard the last of me
I'll dance on your grave
When they finally put you away What'd I do to deserve
All this evil attention
A thousand years
Will never buy you redemption Are you ready now
Ready now for what you gotta give?
Are you ready, ready
Ready now?
