The Invisible Man

Ghoti Hook

Posing like a statue sitting in my office chair typing letters for computer eyes to sorta read drifting like an odor now I'm blending in with the air I'm becoming more and more of what I've got to beI'm invisible I'm floating floating past the homes of the Ozzie and Harriets Past the plans of moving in next door, cause I'm prepared I've got it all figured outMade me out of frosted flakes and television shows made me out of frozen shrimp in office party bowls I metamorphisized cause i have nothing else to do I'll walk into the crowd to avoid becoming youI'm invisible I'm fading fading into sacrifice that doesn't stand for anything do not disturb this state of unconsciousness I'm safe in here, becoming part of everyone everyone everyone everyone!
