Sunshine

Little Dragon

You are my sunbeam when skies are dark You got me flying, way beyond. Cause Ive been wandering and feeling lost, Now, like whirlwind, you put a spell on me. Have been dragging my feet along sleepless everday, I couldnt figure out a thing. Until your lightbeam came crashing in Waited five seconds, soaked in some magic, shoot across To transform my every loss, But then you came storming. You are my sunbeam when skies are dark You got me flying way beyond. Cause Ive been wandering and feeling lost, Now, like whirlwind, you put a spell on me. Your electric ways had me right then Me and my ghost of the past, get him tied down. Waited five seconds, soaked in some magic, come across To transform my every loss, but then you came storming in. You are my sunbeam when skies are dark You got me flying way beyond. Cause Ive been wandering and feeling lost, Now, like whirlwind, you put a spell on me. Ye-eh-eh-y.
