

Porcelain Heart

Nicola Roberts

It beats so strong like a melody
Where do I belong?
You keep spinning me round, round, round
Don't want to come down, down, down
Love to play along in this harmony Hear them sing our song
You keep making me dance, dance, dance
We got them in a trance, trance, trance As good as gold
A traded soul
but I wouldn't change a single thing
My only friend
Let's dance again, but
Please don't break my porcelain heart Never felt so much electricity
You shot her down don't do that to me bang, bang, bang
Just because you can, can, can
We kicked off so quick too much chemistry
I need my seatbelt fixed You're making me learn, learn, learn to love the way it burns, burns, burns As good as gold
A traded soul
but I wouldn't change a single thing
My only friend
Let's dance again, but
Please don't break my porcelain heart You're breaking my As good as gold
A traded soul
but I wouldn't change a single thing
My only friend
Let's dance again, but
Please don't break my porcelain heart
