

If I Don't Have You

Tamar Braxton

Sitting in the dark
Off in my room
Thinking of you
I'm at the brink of me breaking' down
'Cause all these thoughts of me and you apart
Won't leave my head right now
Baby, baby call me crazy
'Cause I know without you I won't be no good
When the latch on my heart comes to you You should know
If I don't have you
Rocks me to the core
I can't love no more
If I don't have you
Know I'm done for sure
Nobody worth fighting for
I'll tear down these walls
That's on my life
I'll lose my mind if I don't have you Looking at my phone
But you ain't even call
I put it in a drawer
'Cause I wanna be right next to you
If you wanna talk
Baby come on through
Before it's all done
Tell me I'm your only one Baby, baby call me crazy
'Cause I know without you I won't be no good
When the latch on my heart comes to you You should know
If I don't have you
Rocks me to the core
I can't love no more
If I don't have you
Know I'm done for sure
Nobody worth fighting for
I'll tear down these walls
That's on my life
I'll lose my mind if I don't have you (If I don't have you) It's way too late to start things over
Can't seem to get it together
We're trying, we try
But we won't look wrong

Dead in their eyes
Let's try and make it right
'Cause I don't wanna fight
Can't see myself without you, in my mind
Please don't say you're done with me
'Cause you're my baby
Baby You should know
If I don't have you
Rocks me to the core
I can't love no more
If I don't have you
Know I'm done for sure
That's on my life
I'll lose my mind if I don't If I don't have you
Rocks me to the core
I can't love no more
If I don't have you
Know I'm done for sure
I'mma tear down these walls
And that's on my life
I'll lose my mind if I don't have you
