Apparition

Stealing Sheep

There's a question I can't answer
There's a feeling I can't hide
A version of you is following me all around
Drowning in trouble in a pool of lightAll this worry, all this time
Do I follow, or sympathise?
A version of you is following me all around
Drowning in trouble in a pool of lightTrouble
TroubleApparition, a break in the storm
A sacred mystery, the answer all along
A version of you is following me all around
Drowning in trouble in a pool of lightTrouble
Trouble
Trouble
TroubleCalm, calm and peaceful days
Floating under waves
A reason for a change
I occupy my mindCalm, calm and peaceful days
Floating under waves
Counting fourteen days
I occupy my mindIf you fall, don't give up
Fix your bones and get back up
Back to where you started
TroubleCalm, calm and peaceful days
Floating under waves
A reason for a change
I occupy my mindIf you fall, don't give up
Fix your bones and get back up
Back to where you started
Trouble
Trouble
Trouble
