Lonely Blue Boy

Conway Twitty

My name should be Trouble
My name should be Woe
For trouble and heartache is all that I know
Yes, Lonely, Lonely Blue Boy is my nameMy life has been empty
My heart has been torn
It must have been raining the night I was born
Yes, Lonely, Lonely Blue Boy is my nameWell, I'm so, I'm so afraid of tomorrow
And so tired, so tired of today
They say that love is the answer
But love never came my wayI'm writing this letter to someone unknown
So if you should find it and if you're alone
Well, Lonely, Lonely Blue Boy is my name
Remember Lonely, Lonely Blue Boy is my name
