

Mystery

DIO

Can you hear me

Can you see

There's a storm on the edge of the sky

Does it matter

It does to me, I can tell you whyWhen there's thunder, there should be rain

But it don't always follow the rule

And is the wise man always right? No he can play the foolIt's always a Mystery, not what it seems to be

It's always a Mystery, just like you and meWe are lightning

We are flame

And we burn at the touch of a spark

If there's fire, but no one sees

The there's only the darkJust imagine, will you try

I can see that you've opened your mind

Silver linings can disappear, but they always shineIt's always a Mystery, not what it seems to be

It's always a Mystery, just like you and meChorus Out
