I Apologize

Roses Are Red

My cigarette lights up the road behind me
It's taking me from you
Well, I'm kicking dirty habits, will you have it?
Say something, breathe it in, now that you've taken everythingBut since you've been away dancing in the moonlight
You won't hear I'm sorry tonight
But since you've been away dancing in the moonlight
You won't hear I'm sorry tonightMy cigarette burns to my finger tips
Pressed against your lips
Well, I'm kicking dirty habits, will you have it?
Say something, breathe it in, now that you've taken everythingBut since you've been away dancing in the moonlight
You won't hear I'm sorry tonight
But since you've been away dancing in the moonlight
You won't hear I'm sorry tonightWell, I've tried and tried to tell you this You're just the breath in between the kiss, I'll share with someone special
You're just the water in my lungs, I'm just a raindrop on your tongue
And I'm so sorry, sorry, sorry, sorry now, sorryBut since you've been away dancing in the moonlight
You won't hear I'm sorry tonight
But since you've been away dancing in the moonlight
You won't hear I'm sorry tonight
