

One Step at a Time

Too Slim & The Taildraggers

When this mean ol' world starts bringing you down
And you're climbing that mountain one step at a time

Believe in yourself never give up
Keep on marching until you make it to the top
Life is a balance of pleasure and pain
Love and loss and wisdom gained

Keep on doing the best that you can
It don't matter if you're a woman or a man
Everybody's bound get the blues sometimes
We'll climb that mountain one step at a time

Well I'm feeling down and I wanna to give up
The mountain I'm climbing seems to have no top
I'm givin' all I got but it's never enough
My back's to the wall and I'm still out of luck
Life is a balance of pleasure and pain
Love and loss and wisdom gained

Keep on doing the best that you can
It don't matter if you're a woman or a man
Everybody's bound get the blues sometimes
We'll climb that mountain one step at a time

24 Bar Lead (follows chorus progression)

Keep on doing the best that you can
It don't matter if you're a woman or a man
Everybody's bound get the blues sometimes
We'll climb that mountain one step at a time

But this mean ol' world ain't gonna bring me down
And I climbed that mountain one step at a time

I believed in my self and I never gave up
You can't knock me down I made it to the top
Life is a balance of pleasure and pain
Love and loss and wisdom gained

Keep on doing the best that you can

It donâ€™t matter if youâ€™re a woman or a man
Everybodyâ€™s bound get the blues sometimes
Weâ€™ll climb that mountain one step at a time

Keep on doing the best that you can
It donâ€™t matter if youâ€™re a woman or a man
Everybodyâ€™s bound get the blues sometimes
Weâ€™ll climb that mountain one step at a time
