The Sweetest Thing

Carlene Carter

In the stillness of the dawn
Our love is dead and gone
The sunrise warms my heart
With memories of you
It's the sweetest thing, rememberingThere's a picture in the hall
That I'm leaving on the wall
'Cause there's a look in your eyes
That always made me fall apart
It's the sweetest thing, rememberingWhen I close my eyes to cry
I can't help but feel a smile
'Cause I think of you and I forget
It hurt to say goodbyeBut after all, we've been through
It's amazing to me
The sweetest things, remembering
Oh the sweetest thing, remembering
Oh the sweetest thing, rememberingWe wanted love to last forever
And the good Lord knows we've tried
But when the rain came pourin' down
There was no place left to hideAnd after all, we've been through
It's amazing to me
The sweetest things, remembering
Oh the sweetest thing, remembering
It's the sweetest thing, remembering
