R.I.P.

Oxymoron

[Chorus:]
Don wanna be a soldier - Rest in peace
Don wanna fight no war in no border countries
I ain gonna feed no vultures - Rest in peace
I ain gonna slay the poor in the dollar sign nameTheye ready to strike with their highly trained force if oil is at stake or another ressource Securing their wealth with innocent life so what a few killings if the dollar is safeBloodstained money who bothers about this inhumanity Bloodstained money
who profits but the arms race-industry
... they can cheat meThe battle is won but it had a high price so rest in peace now in a desert of graves a cross without name but your badge with a code 6212-550Theye ready to strike or incite a new war to show off their arms on a far-away shore Economy boosts, and that all that counts for all the greedy bosses who direct the Whitehouse Youe proud of a game they play on your back But where is your bragging when youe under attack a cross on a grave is the final reward left, right, left right - off to the Lord!You died just for money... money for some industry

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/