Captured

Natalie Grant

It must mean somethin' when I close my eyes
Visions of You come to me and flood my mind
It must mean somethin' when my heart is true
All that I can think about is YouEverywhere I go, You find me
Even when I run, I'm captured
I'm captured in YouEverywhere Your love surrounds me
I cannot escape, I'm captured
I'm captured in You, I'm captured, yeahIt must mean somethin' when I'm standing still Yours is the only voice I wanna hear
It must mean somethin' that I've come this far
Liftin' up my hands and offering my heartEverywhere I go, You find me
Even when I run, I'm captured
I'm captured in YouEverywhere Your love surrounds me
I cannot escape, I'm captured
I'm captured, yeahYou are the sky, You are the sea
You are the air I wanna breathe
You're everywhere, Your love lasts foreverAnd if I fall, You won't let go
You hold me when I can't hold on anymore
You reach out and rescue me
Oh, You rescue meEverywhere I go, You find me
I'm captured, I'm captured
Everywhere Your love surrounds me, yeah
I'm captured, I'm captured, yeahEverywhere I go, You find me
Even when I run, I'm captured
I'm captured, yeahEverywhere, everywhere, everywhere I run
I'm captured, captured, I'm capturedYou capture me, yeah
