Anchors Away

Echo Orbiter

Throw me out into the rain
Playing me as one of your selfish games
I'm not coming back again
How does it feel to make the same mistake?
Everything I hate, you like
And everything I like, you make sure you hate
Now I'll do just what I like
Nobody tells me how to live my own life

Say what I wanna say
Live for today
Anyone can shine
Brightest in the sky
So long to your rules
If that is getting by
Then I am getting out

You should have a sign pinned on you
That says "Beware; I will hurt you"
What goes around comes around
You finally got what you deserve
I don't feel sorry you're alone
Your intentions backfired instead
I saw you sitting on your own
How did it feel to see me with my new girlfriend?

Say what you wanna say
I don't care anyway
You are history
And nothing's gonna change my mind
So long to your rules
If that is getting by
Then I am getting out
