

Grand Canyon

Cee Lo Green

Oh, oh, oh, oh, hey you
If I build a bridge, could I come on over?
And say you look beautiful even from so far away
Hey there, I wish I was the wind that blows your hair
Don't cry, if I could, I'd walk right across the sky
I see the woman for me
On the other side of the Grand Canyon
Could that be the woman for me
On the other side of the Grand Canyon
I'm screaming, to, to the top of my lungs
No one has heard a word, I had to say
The wind blew them away
Hey there, I love you and oh it's not fair
Why can't I fly? 'Cause
I see the woman for me
On the other side of the Grand Canyon
(Grand Canyon)
I couldn't see clearly, the woman for me
On the other side of a Grand Canyon
Ooh
