

The Youth (We Are)

Squad Five-O

Well your my sister and your my brother. United together through God our Father. No division can separate us. United toward a goal by He who did create us. Cause we get together and fight. All the evil that surrounds us. We'll never loose because. We are the youth. We'll keep on fighting. We know what's right. God is our Father. We're gonna live for Him till the day we die. We're standing firm, believing in His Word. We wait for His return. There's a promise that He gave us. The evils of this world can never separate us.
