

Please Heart, You're Killing Me

Eleanor McEvoy

I

Caf  windows, street lamps
Neon lights ablaze that shine all over town
In brilliant conversation, with somebody new
He's out there showin' 'round
Chorus
Please, heart, you're killing me
I'm lost among the faces
Where a sideways glance says romance on a whim
Pretty boys with blue eyes
Smilin' stylin' just reminding me of him
Chorus
Please, heart, you're killing me
Please, heart, you're killing me
Can't go out at night
Can't stay here at home
Can't go anywhere
'cause he'll be there
Can't get out of bed
Can't get any sleep
Can't do anything
What does he care?
Does he care?
Iii
Everywhere I turn, I see
The past jump out in front of me hello
Someone's got it in for me
This whole damn town has secrets I don't know
Chorus
Please, heart, you're killing me
Please, heart, you're killing me

Iv

Four a.m. I brave the cold
The garbage trucks are on a roll, surprise,
A vision through the subway steam
I see him and I can't believe my eyes
Chorus
Please, heart, you're killing me
Please, heart, you're killing me
You're killing me
You're killing me
You're killing me
Stop killing me
