Pain In Your Neck

Sinner

Where do I find the miracle?
I walk through holy water
Pray to Lord, my sacred soulWalking down the meanest streets
Never took the easy way
Faith is not enough
I'm in a cold, cold sweatYou'll ain't see me crying
And when it hurts, I'll carry the pain
Reasons for dying
I will unleash a hurricaneI'm the pain in your neck
I'm your heart attack
I will come in blackAnd if you plead for mercy
And hear the crack
I'm the pain in your neckYou hear, some call it faith
Well, the mysteries are all the same
You dealing with your toughest enemyBe sure I'll see the end
When you hear the thunder bell
Be sure you stay on track
'Cause I'll watch your backYou'll ain't see me crying
And when it hurts, I'll carry the pain
Reasons for dying
I will unleash a hurricaneI'm the pain in your neck
I'm your heart attack
I will come in blackAnd if you plead for mercy
And hear the crack
I'm the pain in your neckYou'll ain't see me crying
And when it hurts, I'll carry the pain
No reasons for dying
I will unleash a hurricaneI'm the pain in your neck, ooh yeah
I'm the pain in your neck
I'm your heart attack
I will come in blackAnd if you plead for mercy
You hear the crack
I'm the pain in your neckI'm your heart attack
I will come in blackAnd if you plead for mercy
And hear the crack
I'm the pain in your neckThe pain in your neck
The pain in your neck
